Laura Solomon
Thompson

Laura is a wonderful volunteer receptionist in our very own Office for the Aging. She has volunteered with RSVP for 8 years and in an invaluable member of our office. Laura sits on the RSVP Advisory committee. She is very active and helps to guide and define the very program that assists all of the seniors in Sullivan County. Laura is a very giving person and is always interested in how she can help make things better for her community. A long time resident of Sullivan County and retired Monticello school teacher aid, she is always ready to advocate for seniors in our area. Laura and her late husband Martin their two sons the late Mark Solomon and Abbott Solomon came to Sullivan County 41+ years ago and Laura still loves living here. Laura is a very determined lady and continues to give back to her community every day.
